

Travel and Accommodation For Hastings₂₀₀₆

All email/web addresses are, so far as I am aware, correct at the time of going to press.

Train and coach times to follow, once the autumn/winter timetables have been confirmed.

By Road – all times are approximate and do depend on the vagaries of traffic.

From Folkestone

A2023 to A259

Follow to A28 then take A2100 – which takes you right into Battle

Approximately 65 minutes (41 miles) depending on traffic

From Dover

A258 to A256

Then A20 to M20

Then A2079 to A259

Follow this to A28 and then take the A2100 which takes you straight into Battle.

Approximately 75 minutes (56 miles) depending on traffic

From Heathrow Airport

M4 Junction to M25

From there A21 to A2100 which takes you straight into Battle.

Approximately 90 minutes (82 miles), very much depending on traffic on the M25

From Gatwick Airport

A23 to M23

Take M25

From there A21 to A2100 which takes you straight into Battle.

Approximately 60 minutes (56 miles), again very much depending on traffic on the M25

Camping "Plastic" camping will be available in the abbey grounds, full details of this will be sent out nearer the time. Minimal facilities will be limited to toilets, water points and a beer tent but English Heritage are trying to persuade some local shops and mobile caterers to set up stalls on site as well.

Guest Houses If you prefer to sleep in comfort, please find attached a list of local Guest Houses - these are in not recommendations, just a list supplied by the Tourist Board and Yell.co.uk, so we cannot guarantee the standard of accommodation,

The Vikings regret they cannot be held responsible for the British weather.

Please remember Battle High Street is quite narrow and very busy. Take care when driving, and when crossing the road.

A safety note, we realise that your weapon(s) are very dear to you, but if you are staying in a hotel or B & B, please take them up to your room out of everyone's way. Your co-operation will be appreciated by all, particularly your hosts, and the local constabulary.

Revised 16th January 2006.
